SECOND CIRCULAR

The Organizing Committee is pleased to invite you to participate in the 16th International Seminar on Inclusion Compounds (ISIC-16) and 3rd Youth School on Supramolecular and Coordination Chemistry, which will be held in Kazan (Russia), June 26-30, 2017. The main objective of ISIC-16 is to present the frontiers of supramolecular chemistry based on inclusion phenomena. In addition, it will be a seminar to bring together both young and experienced scientists from across the world for a fruitful discussion at all levels. The program will feature several talk formats including a number of presentation opportunities for younger scientists.

This Seminar continues a series of conferences that have been organized biennial at different places around the world. The previous International Seminars on Inclusion Compounds were held in Poland, Russia, United Kingdom, Ukraine, Turkey, Czech Republic, and South Africa. Kazan (Russia) will host the 16th Seminar in 2017.

Kazan Federal University, founded in 1804 and located on the border of the Volga River, is a key multidisciplinary and research-oriented university of Russia. This place is associated with the beginning of Russian organic chemistry and the names of outstanding chemists such as K.K.Klaus, N.N.Zinin, A.M.Butlerov, V.V.Markovnikov, A.M.Zajtsev, A.E.Arbusov, B.A.Arbusov. The spirit of chemistry of last centuries is carefully preserved in the museum of chemistry at the A.M.Butlerov Chemical Institute of Kazan Federal University.

How to reach the venue of the Seminar

By plane

Kazan International Airport (IATA: KZN) is 30km to the southeast of the city centre. Aeroflot, S7, Transaero and UTAir fly between Kazan and Moscow, and Rossiya Airlines also flies to Kazan from Saint Petersburg. Finnair, Flydubai, Turkish Airlines and Air Baltic, Azal, Air Astana are some of the international carriers flying to Kazan.

By train

Kazan is easy to reach by train, as it is a major station stop for several west-east trains. Depending on the train, travel from Moscow's Kazan Station can be as short as 11 hours. A direct train from St. Petersburg's Moscow Station takes 25 hours. Kazan's train station is located close to the city center, with several hotels, restaurants, and the Kremlin within walking distance of the train station.

SCIENTIFIC PROGRAM

The Conference program will include plenary lectures, short lectures and poster presentations. Scientific program will be organized around the following topics:

- Molecular inclusion and recognition
- Self-organisation and self-assembly
- New synthetic methods in supramolecular chemistry
- Chemistry of supramolecular systems
- Crystal engineering
- Sorption/desorption properties
- Nanomaterials
- Applications

LANGUAGE

The official language of the Seminar is English and no translation will be provided.

ACCOMMODATION

We would like to inform you that the participants of the Seminar on Inclusion Compounds (ISIC-16) and 3rd Youth School on Supramolecular and Coordination Chemistry need to book the accommodation in advance, since FIFA Confederations Cup 2017 will be held from 17 June to 2 July 2017 in Kazan. So you can meet big problems with the accommodation at that time. Please, book accommodation in Kazan as soon as possible.

Organizing Committee have booked the accommodation at the hotel "Hayal" (4*) for the participants who asked about it before April 1, 2017.

For the students and young scientists the rooms in the Kazan University dormitory at lower price can be offered by request to scientific secretary Svetlana Solovieva (isic16info@gmail.com) strictly before April 25, 2017.

VISA

The Organizing Committee can provide for the participants the official invitation letter to get Russian business visa. For this we ask to fill the questionnaire form (see, seminar web-site). Besides, we also need a copy of the passport pages with photo, name, issuance data etc. Scan-copy of these pages and questionnaire should be sent by e-mail to scientific secretary Svetlana Solovieva (isic16info@gmail.com) strictly before April 25, 2017. There is no way to assist you to get visa after deadline. Please note that such an invitation letter can only be issued once full payment of the conference registration fee has been received.

IMPORTANT DATES

Deadline of full abstract submission: April 15, 2017.

Deadline of early registration fee payment: May 15, 2017.

Deadline for visa application form: April 25, 2017.
